“Gaea’s WMS implementation team understands our processes well and designed the best-suited solution to meet our requirements for a successful deployment.

I am glad that we have chosen the Gaea team as our implementation partner and look forward to similar support on future implementations.”

*Nikkoo Dahiya,
Head, Supply Chain, Bata*

“Gaea helped Garden of Life open a new warehouse in record time and Synkrato digital labeling was a critical piece of the project, reducing development time and increasing quality and reliability. Partnering with Gaea for all things supply chain has been one of our best decisions ever!”

Christy Poe, Sr Director IT, Garden of Life

“Gaea has been one of our most trusted partners throughout our decade plus journey of business transformation. We have partnered on major acquisitions, system upgrades, and support of our growing business around the world. Gaea’s supply chain expertise and unwavering commitment has enabled us to jointly engineer an agile, responsive, scalable supply chain that is critical to our business. I look forward to continuing our partnership and continuing to optimize our supply chain and grow the business.”
